ers flew a Events in Capture of Ship

The second secon

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24 (UPI)-Following is a chronology of events in the North Korean seizure of the United States Navy intelligence vessel Pueblo. (Sequence is given in Eastern time, which is 14 hours behind Korean time.)

About two weeks ago: The Navy stationed the Pueblo off were injured, one critically, Navy stationed the Pueblo off North Korea.

About 10 P.M. Monday: North Korean patrol boat approached Pueblo and with signal flags asked identity, then ordered, "Heave to or I will open fire on you." Pueblo responded, "I am in international waters."

Patrol boat circled Pueblo.

were injured, one critically, after the ship was boarded.

2:32 A.M.: Pueblo radioed that she had come "all stop" and was "going off the air."

Between 2 and 2:30 A.M.: Walt W. Rostow, special White House assistant, awakened President Johnson.

8:40 A.M.: The Defense De-incident.

o follow the North Korean Japan, where the Pueblo was ships into the port of Wonsan. seized.

m in international waters.
Patrol boat circled Pueblo.

About 11 P.M.: Three additional patrol craft appeared.
One ordered: "Follow in my wake. I have a pilot aboard." formed Congressional leaders, The four craft circled the American ship. Two MIG jet lighter planes appeared.

The four craft circled the gathered for a previously scheduled breakfast meeting.

5:50 P.M.: Navy announced

fighter planes appeared.

11:45 P.M.: Pueblo radioed that she was being boarded by had been injured in the boarding. Informed sources disclosed Midnight: Secretary of State

Dean Rusk was informed of the incident.

Midnight: Secretary of State the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier Enterprise had been dincident. 2 A.M. Tuesday: Pueblo rethe North Vietnamese coast ported that she had been asked and ordered into the Sea of ships into the port of Wonsan.

North Korea says the Pueblo, armed with two .50-caliber machine guns, fired on its patrol boats and that they returned the fire and "killed and wounded" several Americans. The the Pueblo and her crewmen. Defense Department says only Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Kook rethat four of Pueblo's crewmen jected the demand.